

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ) FULL-DEGREE MOBILITY

Can I spend a semester at Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne as a “freemover”?

If your home university did not sign a partnership agreement allowing you to spend a semester in our university, you can't register as an exchange student. You can't enrol as a full-degree student either for one semester, individual admissions are valid for a whole academic year, from September to June.

How can I get an official recognition certificate for my foreign diploma?

There is no legal principle of equivalence between qualifications and diplomas obtained abroad and French diplomas. The only document that can be issued is a “comparability certificate” delivered by the public agency ENIC-NARIC. This document is mandatory if you are applying on Mon master or on eCandidat. A fee is charged for this procedure, and it takes three months. If you are applying on Études en France, this does not apply to you. If you do not know how your diploma translates into the French system, please contact us.

Can I attend French language preparatory classes before the academic year starts?

No, the only French classes students can attend are offered during the academic year by Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne's language department for students that are already enrolled in an academic department.

I can't find the degree I am interested in on the Études en France (Campus France) application platform, can I still apply?

If you are applying for the 2nd or 3rd year of a Bachelor's or for the 2nd year of a Master's, and if you do not find the degree on the Études en France platform, you can apply on the university application platform eCandidat.

Applications are closed on Études en France, is there another solution for me to apply?

Unfortunately, no. If the Études en France procedure applies to you and you miss the deadline, your application can not be accepted through another process.

I want to study online, is it possible? If so, can I ask for a student visa?

Some law degrees are available online (check the IED-EDS website for more information). If you study online, you cannot ask for a student visa. You cannot ask for a student visa either if you are a law “capacité” student, even if you study on-site in Paris.

I am a not a European Economic Area (EEA) national, can I apply for a professional or an apprenticeship degree?

A recent change of legislation makes it possible. Student visas now allow students to enrol in these degrees, including during their first year in France. You will find more information on this page.

Can I study in English?

You can find all the degrees taught in English on this webpage. Make sure you meet all the requirements to apply.
